ST. VINCENT AND THE GRENADINES

YACHTING

READY TO SET SAIL?

Embark on the adventure of a lifetime with a yachting holiday in St. Vincent and the Grenadines. Enjoy stunning natural beauty, luxurious amenities, and endless opportunities for adventure. Every moment will create a memory to cherish forever.

SAILING IN PARADISE

It doesn't get any better than the Tobago Cays Marine Park, where five uninhabited islands boast shallow turquoise waters, powdery white sand beaches, and swaying coconut palms. Spend your days snorkelling, kayaking, or paddle-boarding amidst friendly fish and vibrant coral reefs visible from your boat's deck. End your adventures with a freshly caught red snapper barbecue under the stars, free from any light pollution, for an unforgettable evening of stargazing.

MOVIE MAGIC AND CULTURAL DELIGHTS

Explore the real-life sets of Pirates of the Caribbean at Wallilabou Bay in St. Vincent, where lush rainforests, volcanic landscapes, and pristine beaches set the scene for adventure. Immerse yourself in Bequia's rich cultural heritage, Mustique's exclusive luxury, and Mayreau's serene beauty. Hike to the summit of La Soufriere Volcano or savour the local cuisine. St. Vincent and the Grenadines offers a tapestry of experiences waiting to be discovered.

YACHTING CLEARANCE PROCEDURES

Upon arrival in the territorial waters of St. Vincent and the Grenadines, yachts must proceed directly to a designated port of entry to complete clearance procedures before heading to another anchorage. With the Q flag hoisted, yachts should dock or anchor in the port of entry. Only the captain should go ashore with the following documents:

- Three crew lists
- Previous port clearance
- Passports
- Ship's papers

Yachts must clear out at one of the official ports before departing St. Vincent and the Grenadines. Private vessels must pay a cruise tax to allow an unlimited stay at the destination, while chartered yachts need a St. Vincent and the Grenadines cruising license.

YACHT SERVICES

Visiting yachts can access a wide range of services and supplies, including well-stocked chandleries, laundry services, sail lofts, fuel, water, marine electronics, refrigeration, and propane. The state-of-the-art Sandy Lane Marina on Canouan also provides comprehensive services.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

Visitors entering St. Vincent and the Grenadines must have a valid passport, except for nationals of the Organisation of Eastern Caribbean States, who need only show proof of citizenship, such as a driver's license or voter's registration.

Citizens of China, the Dominican Republic, Nigeria, Iraq, Iran, Lebanon, Syria, and Jordan must obtain visas.

All visitors, except those departing by sea, require a return or ongoing ticket.
